CHINOOK Driving Academy

Olympia Driving Academy INC. O/A Chinook Driving Academy & Chinook Driving School Calgary

CONDITIONS OF ENROLLMENT (STUDENT AGREEMENT)

Chinook Driving Academy is committed to providing high-quality driver training.To ensure safety, professionalism, and a respectful learning environment, all students are required to follow the rules and conditions outlined below. Students may not begin any portion of the program (Online classroom, In-person classroom, or In-vehicle lessons) until this signed Conditions of Enrollment form has been received by Chinook Driving Academy.

1) PROGRAM VALIDITY, EXPIRY, AND FILE RETENTION

- Your driver training program (Online classroom,In-person classroom, and/or In-vehicle lessons) must be completed within 24 months (2 years). The 24-month period begins on the date this Conditions of Enrollment form is signed.
- If the program is not completed within 24 months, your file becomes inactive and you will be required to re-enroll and pay applicable fees to restart the program and/or re-issue documentation.
- Student files are retained for 24 months from the signed date. After 24 months, files are securely shredded and cannot be reopened or recovered.
- If you contact us after the 24-month period, you must re-enroll and pay applicable fees for us to create a new file and (if eligible) re-create a new certificate.

2) CERTIFICATE PROCESSING

- Once all course requirements have been completed and your file is confirmed as complete and in good standing, please allow up to 14 business days for certificate processing and issuance.

3) REFUND POLICY

- Once any portion of the program has started (Classroom, Online, or In-vehicle), or if any portion remains incomplete, no refunds will be issued.
- If no part of the program has been started, a refund may be issued minus a 5% transaction fee and a $40 administration fee.

4) SCHEDULING, CANCELLATIONS, AND RESCHEDULING

- Instructors may cancel or reschedule any on-road session within 24 hours due to unforeseen circumstances (including illness, emergencies, severe weather, mechanical issues, accidents, or delays caused by a final road test).
- Chinook Driving Academy reserves the right to cancel a classroom or in-car lesson when safety or instruction quality is impacted
  - (severe weather, instructor illness/emergency, vehicle availability/condition, or accidents).
- If a student is late, lesson time may be reduced and may be treated as a missed lesson at the instructor's discretion.

5) STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY AND CONDUCT

- We provide professional instruction, feedback, and guidance. Students must follow instructor direction and complete recommended practice.
- If progress is limited or a traffic violation occurs during training, we will review the situation with the student and additional lessons may be required to meet safety and competency standards.
- Physical or verbal abuse toward staff or other students is not permitted and may result in removal from the program without refund.

6) CLASSROOM TRAINING (ONLINE OR IN-PERSON)

- The classroom portion is 15 hours and must be completed within the overall 24-month program validity.

6A) ONLINE CLASSROOM (SELF-PACED)

- A course link/login will be sent by email (as applicable).
- Students complete the course at their own pace within the 24-month validity.
- Course content is copyrighted — no recording, photographing, or copying.

6B) IN-PERSON CLASSROOM (ATTENDANCE REQUIRED)

- In-Person Classroom (Attendance Required)
- Students must attend all scheduled hours, arrive on time, and remain for the full session.
- Phones/media are not permitted during class (emergencies excluded). No damage or writing on desks/tables; messy snacks (gum/seeds) are not permitted.
- Chinook Driving Academy may reschedule classes due to safety or unforeseen circumstances.
- Course content is copyrighted — no recording, photographing, or copying.

7) IN-CAR PRACTICE RULES

- ALL students MUST have their valid learner's or driver's licence with them for every in-car session.
- If a student is under the influence of drugs or alcohol, is in possession of weapons, or displays violent behaviour, Chinook Driving Academy may refuse training services.
  - No refund will be issued for the affected lesson and the student may be removed from the program.
- Each two-hour in-car lesson typically consists of two 55-minute sessions with a 10-minute break halfway through. The instructor will try to stop near a public restroom when possible.
- Missed lessons WITHOUT 24 hours notice are subject to a fee: $92.00 + 5% GST = $96.60.
  - With 24 hours notice, there is no missed-lesson charge.
